Internship Opportunity for Graduates and Postgraduates: Content Writing and Recording Museum Artefacts

The Kerala Council for Historical Research (KCHR) invites dedicated graduates and postgraduates in History and Archaeology to join us as interns for the Pattanam Museum Project. This project allows interns to interact closely with our archaeology and history experts at the KCHR Pattanam Campus, gaining valuable practical experience in curating, researching, and contributing to the foundational processes of establishing a museum that honours the rich archaeological heritage of Pattanam.

As part of the team, your role will be classifying and recording artefacts, creating content, and contributing to the museum's primary setup. This is an excellent opportunity for those with a strong interest in Archaeology, History, Museum Studies, and cultural heritage to gain invaluable insights into the processes behind establishing a museum that showcases the rich historical and archaeological legacy of Pattanam. Selected interns are expected to be at the Pattanam or Trivandrum office during office hours unless they are assigned other duties. There will not be any internship fee.

Key Responsibilities:

- Classifying and recording archaeological artefacts.
- Assisting in research and documentation of artefacts.
- Writing informative content for Museum exhibits.

Eligibility:

- Graduate or Postgraduate in History and Archaeology with an interest in archaeology, history, museum studies, or related fields.
- Strong organisational skills and attention to detail.
- Excellent written communication skills in English and Malayalam.
- Enthusiasm to work in a collaborative, learning-driven environment.

Why Join KCHR

- Train under renowned archaeologists and historians.
- Gain practical experience in archaeological and historical studies.
- Collaborate with experts in the development of a pioneering museum.
- Develop essential content writing skills, data collection and analysis skills.

Be part of this exciting journey and join us to preserve and present the rich heritage of Pattanam to the world. Interested candidates can apply by filling out the Google Form below. Visit our website for the terms and conditions of the internship. Applications are open until January 6, 2025.
