Due to the current Covid 19 situation, KCHR is planning to open our library with strict covid guidelines. Access to the library is restricted to the members only for the alternate working days (Monday, Wednesday and Friday) from 10.30 am to 4.30 pm. You can book your slots through the link provided in our website.

Instructions :-

1. Only vaccinated people will have the permission to enter the library.
2. Wearing a mask is compulsory.
3. Please sanitize your hands properly before entering the library.
4. Please follow strict social distancing.
5. Enter your details in the visitors register.
6. A maximum of two users are allowed on a single day.
7. Users will be allotted a designated space in the library. They must use only their allotted space.
8. The bookshelves area in the library is now designated as a closed access area for the users. The Library staff will provide the desired books to the users.
9. After the books have been used, they will be kept in an isolated and quarantined place.
10. Users should not throw any waste/paper/used mask/gloves, etc. inside the library.
11. Person/s accompanying the permitted user, if any, are not allowed inside the library

Please follow the above instructions strictly for the smooth functioning of our library.
